

Updated: 3/25/2020

WARNING! Beware of Unauthorized Contacts From Companies Calling on Behalf of JCK

Reed Exhibitions has received numerous reports that our customers have been contacted via phone by persons fraudulently posing as authorized to reach out on behalf of JCK and request your information. The callers seek your business information under the following scenarios:

- to keep you updated with JCK publications
- to ensure you receive the latest show updates due to our postponement

Reed Exhibitions urges you to BEWARE of these types of contacts. These companies, and ones like them, are not endorsed by, or affiliated with, Reed Exhibitions or the show, and the services purported to be offered are fraudulent. Please do not provide them with any information.